

Coast Draws Golfers For Golden Event

Sunday Journal For Miss and Mrs

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY, JULY 31, 1960, PART III PAGE 1

WEARING COSTUMES of 1910 era were committee members of women's group at Astoria Golf and Country Club in celebration of 50th anniversary of Oregon Coast Golf Tournament held last week at club. From left, Mrs. E. T. Edison, chairman of Tuesday bridge luncheon; Mrs. Donovan Mitchell, Mrs. James Holmes and Mrs. Fred Sandoz (driving). Cranking 1909 Buick is Mrs. Ed Britts and not visible inside car is Mrs. Jack Witliff. Car belongs to Abel S. Olson and was loaned as exterior decoration. Cocktail parties, dinners and dancing marked event.

MANNING MONEY-MAKING scheme on fourth hole during annual golf tournament were two women contestants, Brenda Black (left) and Mrs. Alan Green, both of Portland. Latter had thrill of making hole-in-one during qualifying round. Co-operating in club's fund-raising project were male golfers (from left) Les Dafoe of Seattle, William Ames of Gearhart and Dr. Paul Zuelke of Portland. In keeping with half-century observation, course was brightened with gold tee markers and gold flowers in beds. (Photos L. Ordeman)